

Table of Contents

Preparing to write using this guide	1
How to begin a lifebook	2
Many reasons for creating a lifebook	4
Present the lifebook that is interesting	5
Choosing a voice	7
Preplanning: where and how to journal	8
Different types of writing	8
Journaling Tips	9
Questions adopted children often ask	10
Let's Get Started! "Gather, Sort and Organize"	11
WRITING LESSON #1: Descriptive Journaling	15
WRITING TEXT: Children's lives in China
1. Introduction page	18
2. Birth page	20
3. Chinese name page	23
4. General China page	24
5. Province or local area	29
6. Customs and traditions	31
7. One-child policy, reasons for abandonment	34
8. Birth parents	36
9. Abandonment	40
10. Orphanage/foster home	50
WRITING LESSON #2: Optional Styles	56
WRITING LESSON #3: Writing from the Heart	58
WRITING TEXT: Adoption
1. Paper chase / The wait	62
2. CCA matching	65
3. Referral	66
4. Leaving for China	69
5. Adoption day	71
6. Families made differently	73
7. Coming home	77
8. Forever family	79
Making lifebooks for teens and toddlers	80
Optional page topics	82
About the author	83